NEWS LETTER FROM STATE DEPARTMENTS

COLUMBUS.—Substantial awards will be made at the 1937 Ohio non-daily newspaper show which will be conducted in late January or early February by the Buckeye Press association, now the official weekly unit of the Ohio Newspaper association. President E. L. Hene of the Wellington Enterprise, president of the Buckeye organization, said that the awards will cover six classifications, including first page and other make-up; news coverage, community and farm; advertising composition and display; editorial expression, leadership in community thinking; community service, promotion of projects for the betterment of the community; and special editions. Any non-daily Ohio newspaper is eligible to enter any one or more of the classes. Entries may be made before January 1 with Osman C. Hooper of the school of journalism, Ohio State university, where the show will be held. A substantial increase in comparison to the 100 exhibits at the 1936 show is anticipated, officials stated.

The October enrollment quota of Ohio youth in the Civilian Conservation Corps camps has been set at 5,400, according to an announcement by J. Otis Garber, acting director of the Federal Emergency Relief Administration in the state. Applications are now being received in the eighty-eight counties by local selecting agencies, which in most cases are county relief administrations. Enrollees must be United States citizens, unmarried, unemployed, and willing to allot a substantial portion of their $30 monthly cash allowance to their families. They must pass preliminary physical examinations in order to prove that they are free from communicable diseases and are able to do rigorous outdoor work. The CCC activities include forest improvement, trail-making, soil erosion control, flood control, landscaping, development of recreational areas and other similar projects.

Reports to Registrar Frank West of the bureau of motor vehicles indicate that law enforcement officers and agencies throughout the state are co-operating with his suggestion that actual enforcement of the provisions of the new drivers' license law be postponed until November 1. The law was in effect on and after October 1, but many motor vehicle operators were unable to obtain the required license due to a delay in starting the issuance. Registrar West then suggested that a program of "correction instead of prosecution" be put into effect whereby drivers without licenses will be warned but not arrested if apprehended prior to the first of next month and are found to be without the legal permit. It is estimated that there are some 800,000 Ohio motorists yet to be licensed, out of which about 250,000 will be required to pass an examination because they have driven a car less than one year.

Better morale and a marked decrease in infractions of rules and regulations at the Ohio Reformatory for Women is resulting under the administration of Superintendent Marguerite Reilly, according to observers. When she assumed charge of the institution less than two years ago, Superintendent Reilly immediately adopted the policy of permitting the inmates to bob their hair and otherwise beautify themselves on the belief that such privileges would be good for them. The plan worked successfully, and now Superintendent Reilly has gone a step further and procured new blue tailored dresses with white collars for the women prisoners to replace the drab uniforms they have been wearing. In turn the majority of the inmates express their appreciation by a close adherence to the rules and regulations of the institution, it is said.

Seven state parks and 301 privately owned tourist camps have measured up to the sanitary requirements of the State Department of Health and are entitled to display the sign of approval, it was announced by Dr. Walter H. Hartung, state health director. The state parks are the Serpent Mound in Adams county; Fort Amanda in Auglaize; Fort St. Clair in Preble; Mound City in Ross; Fort Laurens and Schoenbrunn Memorial, both in Tuscarawas county; and Fort Ancient in Warren county.

COLLEGE NEWS

A Booster Meeting, the Second in the history of Cedarville College, was held in the Alford Gymnasium Friday evening, October 2. One of the finest and best speakers that the Women's Advisory Board ever gave was partaken of by one hundred and fifty people. This meeting was attended by alumni, college students, members of the college faculty, members of the Board of Trustees, and many other friends of Cedarville College.

Miss Carrie M. Rife, President of the Alumni Association, presided with grace and dignity at the meeting. Miss Bickett, Director of Music, supervised the music of the evening; The male quartette gave several numbers and Miss Bickett led the audience in quite a number of songs.

Dr. Charles Ryan Adams, Pastor of the Covenant Presbyterian Church of Springfield, Ohio, gave the main address of the evening. It was replete with value and the place of Christian education and was closely listened to by the audience. Dr. Adams presented the truth of his subject in a thoughtful and challenging manner.

His address was followed by short talks from President McChesney, Judge S. C. Wright, John L. Dorst, Business Manager of Cedarville College, Supt. H. D. Furst, Mr. Keith Bull, Rev. Dwight R. Guthrie, Rev. R. A. Jamieson, Rev. C. E. Hill, and Mr. Edward J. Jennings of Springfield. Mrs. W. R. Tifford sang two fine spiritual numbers and played her accompaniment on a banjo guitar. Dr. W. H. Tifford offered the invocation and Rev. C. E. Hill pronounced the benediction. All in all it was a good start off for the campaign to raise current funds and endowment for Cedarville College.

Mr. John L. Dorst, Business Manager of the College, spoke at the Rally Day Program of the United Presbyterian Church, Sabbath morning. His subject was "Come and Go."

The double male quartette of the College sang at the Union meeting of the churches Sabbath evening.

The much needed modern furnaces are nearing completion. Both the Administration building and the Library premise to be quite comfortable during the winter.

Other needed improvements are in progress. The Music Studio has been repainted, the Girls' Room in the basement has been redecorated and refurnished. These improvements are due largely to the efforts of Mr. Dorst. The Men's Bible Reading Contest has been announced for November 1, and Professor Steele is now receiving entries.

Dr. and Mrs. McChesney, Rev. and Mrs. Guthrie, and Mrs. Clara Morton attended the installation service for Rev. Paul McLaughlin, '34, in the Presbyterian Church of Winchester, Ohio, on Tuesday evening. Dr. McChesney and Rev. Guthrie assisted in the services.

Rev. and Mrs. Ankeny, who are home on furlough from the mission field in Japan, have been visiting in this community, and attended the Booster Meeting on Friday evening. Rev. Ankeny addressed the joint meeting of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. on Wednesday morning. Mrs. Ankeny was a former teacher of English and French in Cedarville College.

Jesse Owens Out For Gov. Landon

Jesse Owens, O. S. U. Olympic, that won signal honors this summer in various contests, has joined Republican forces in urging the election of Gov. Landon for president and John W. Bricker for governor.

Owens, the most famous Negro athlete in the country, appeals to his race to stand by the Republican nominees at the coming election. He was introduced by Perry W. Howard, member of the Republican National Committee. He went from here to Wilberforce and to Xenia for speeches and later in the day appeared in Springfield.

A delegation from Xenia, including many well known colored citizens, and Cong. Marshall, accompanied Owens. His wife accompanied him and was introduced to the audience. Wilberforce U. has made a conditional offer to Owens to head the athletic activities of that institution but he desires to complete his course at the O. S. U. first.

YOUNG WOMEN ORGANIZE CLUB

Mrs. L. E. Stewart, of Alpha, was elected president of the Young Women's Republican Club of Greene County at an organization meeting largely attended in the common pleas court room at the Court House Monday night, in Xenia.

Brown, who returned Monday from Chicago, where she visited national Republican headquarters; Miss Mary Wilgus and Mrs. Katharine Farrell, chairman and vice-chairman, respectively, of the Greene County Republican women's organization.

Plans were made for the club to attend a Republican rally in Xenia, Monday night at which Mrs. Albert Simms (Ruth Hanna McCormick) will be principal speaker. The next meeting of the club is tentatively scheduled for October 19.

Miss Baker Will Address Local Women

All of the ladies of the community who are interested in good government are invited to attend a tea sponsored by the Republican Women's Committee, on the afternoon, Monday, October 19th.

New Deal Has Tea Pot Scandal

Exposure this week by a Senate Investigating Committee of the connection of Elliott Roosevelt, son of F. D., in the sale of airplanes to Russia, whereby he was to receive a commission of $500,000, gives the New Deal a Tea Pot Dome scandal right on the eve of the election.

It cannot be said the report is Republican propaganda for the committee is under the New Deal Senate control and was forced to make a report upon the publication of the evidence in an aviation magazine.

The Roosevelt do not deny but that such a plan had been considered two years ago, but that F. D. opposed the son traveling in Russia. Elliott admits the existence of the contract but denies that he ever received even the retainer of $5,000, as first payment.

The Russian contract it is alleged was to be handled through the Roosevelt Export-Import Bank of which George Peek, noted farm leader, was head. Peek resigned this position months ago to save his reputation. If you want to get an insight of the New Deal read Peek's latest book, "Why Quit Our Own."

A county meeting for farm reporters will be held in Xenia October 12 at which time instructions will be given relative to checking those farms for performance. This check will consist of determining the shift from depleting to conserving crops and the extent to which soil building practices have been followed on the farm this year.

Farmers who have not yet requested inspection are asked to notify the county office.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to all our neighbors and friends for their kindness and sympathy shown us at this sad time, the passing of our beloved mother, Mrs. Sophia Bruce. Especially do we thank Rev. C. E. Hill for his words of consolation. The Napley Bros. for their efficient services and the donors of the beautiful flowers.

Gov. Alf M. Landon

A delegation from here will go to Springfield Saturday to hear Gov. Alf Landon, Republican candidate for president. He will speak from the rear of a special train at 12:03. A stop of the special will also be made at London at 12:40.

Gov. Landon will arrive in Columbus at 1:40 and will be the guest of Attorney General John W. Bricker for the Ohio-State-Pittsburgh football game. Saturday evening he will be given a public reception in Columbus.

Sunday will be spent in the capitol city where he will attend church. Monday evening Landon will speak in the municipal auditorium in Cleveland with stops enroute to that city.

Quotations On Cash Grains Are Dropped

For the first time in 86 years Cincinnati newspapers are unable to publish prices of cash grains grown in the Ohio Valley. New Deal market regulations stopped the time honored custom that enabled buyer and seller to keep in touch with the market. The New Deal method is to keep the producer in the dark. Markets were first published in 1850 in the Cincinnati Gazette. Wheat for the year ranged from 70¢ to $1.10 and corn 27¢ to 56¢. The new regulations means "more regulation for the farmer."

WHERE IS THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY TODAY?

Anyone that heard Al Smith over the air last Thursday evening could not help being impressed with what he said and the reason he found it necessary to announce his support of Gov. Alf Landon, the Republican nominee for president.

There was no place for him to go being a Democrat of the Jefferson school, that placed politics only second to being an American citizen. As he pointed out indirectly, "Where is the Democratic party?" Roosevelt in his speeches never mentions the party by name, always referring to the New Deal party. He never mentions who is his running mate, nor does he ask that any of the candidates running as Democrats for the senate or congress be elected. If the average Democrat only gives the situation a moment of thought he must conclude that the Roosevelt New Deal party has absorbed the Democratic party. Al Smith said over the air, "I am not leaving my party, but I cannot follow the New Dealers."

In Wisconsin the New Dealers have junked the Democratic ticket to follow the LaFollette socialists. Roosevelt turns down the Democratic nominee for senator in Nebraska, for Norris, a former Republican turned socialist. New York's Mayor LaGuardia, who served in congress as a socialist, supports Roosevelt in return for WPA funds. A Roosevelt elector in New York is Dubinsky, a Communist and labor leader. Browder, Communist candidate for president is campaigning for Roosevelt. The underworld leaders in Chicago and New York City are Farley's hirelings in the interest of Roosevelt.

It is no wonder that Al Smith, once candidate for president on the Democratic ticket says he must support Landon in preference to Roosevelt. His judgment is to be admired, his frankness praised. In the absence of a true loyal Democratic candidate for president he like others must make his choice among the other candidates. "A man is always known by the company he keeps." Who can conceive that an insurance company, industrial concern or railroad would have a Tugwell, Frankenstein, Hopkins, or a Wallace as its head?

SOCIAL SECURITY AT STAKE IN OHIO

Now that orders have gone from Gov. Davey's headquarters in Columbus to every county in the state to contact at once every person drawing old age pensions, that if he is not elected, or the recipient does not at least shows signs of favoring his re-election, the pension will stop after the fall election.

Taking the pre-election scare-warning at what ever value it might have, we might ask the Democratic administration, "What is the reason all those eligible for pensions did not receive their stipend last month?" The only answer is that Davey ordered an increase in the payments and there was not enough money left in the fund to pay all of those entitled to pensions. How many can expect to be left out next month?

From this one act, not only pensioners but taxpaying citizens can see just how far politicians can use the so-called social security for political purposes. Relief and WPA funds are being handled in the same manner by the Federal government. Republicans seeking WPA labor have been turned down by the hundred, not only by those in authority in Ohio but in every other state. It has been publicly exposed that a certain Republican applied twice and was turned down after answering the question as to what his politics was. The third time he was successful but the applicant by this time reported he was a Democrat and the next day was asked to report for work.

Voters in the state of Maine used the only sensible rule. Millions of federal money was promised for most any kind of a project, even $50,000 for an electric light plant in a town of 350 people. The voters accepted the money and at the polls turned down the Roosevelt hoodlums by voting as they please. Ohio citizens can show their independence by following the example set in Maine.

INDIVIDUALS CREATE WEALTH

"Every step forward in economic progress since the world began has been through the voluntary efforts of individuals. The corollary is true: political organisms have never created wealth-producing enterprises."—David Lawrence.

SELF-RELIANCE ON THE FARM

American agriculture, like American industry, goes through bad times as well as good and must face plenty of serious problems—but the average farmer is far from the weak sister that some of our professional "farm relievers" seem to think. Self-reliance still is his foremost characteristic.

A.B.C. of TAXES

BY BERT FOSTER

H. C. OF L. IS WITH US AGAIN

THE two-year rise in the cost of living from July, 1933 to July, 1935, showed the following increases: Food 27%, clothing 21%, rent 10.3%.

"Today there is an invisible guest who sits at the table of every family in this country. He is the invisible tax-eater, who collects the hidden taxes. 'When the housewife purchases three pork chops, the butcher weighs them out, but only wraps up two. The third he gives to this invisible guest.'—Lewis H. Brown, President, John-Manville.

straw vote was "O. K." Few people stop to analyze the straw vote as most are concerned as to the number each candidate receives. Take most any straw vote table and compare the change of votes from Republican to Democrat and the reverse. For instance check the Enquirer vote. Out of more than 14,000 votes, only 731 Republicans have switched over to Roosevelt, while 1,217 Democrats have switched to Landon. Another canvass of first voters shows Landon receiving three out of every four votes.

Attorney General John W. Bricker in his speech Saturday night answered his Democratic opponent in direct fashion. He said it was hard for him to tell whether the newspapers of Ohio were running for governor or himself. Every Democratic metropolitan paper in Ohio is either "passive" or openly supporting John W. Bricker. Even Ex-Gov. Cox's papers are unaware that Martin L. Davey is a candidate for governor.

Insurance Congress Fears

Roosevelt Financial Policy

NEW YORK.—Alarmed by the financial policies of the Roosevelt administration which "seriously impair income necessary for the security of life insurance reserves," the National Fraternal Congress of America recently went on record as opposed to these policies.

Representing five million holders of fraternal insurance policies in America valued at five billion dollars, the congress passed the resolution without a dissenting vote: "Unless the administration's policies are changed or stopped, the millions of policyholders in this country will suffer irreparable injury."

Tips for Poultrymen

Experiments show that baby chicks may be fed safely from 24 to 72 hours after hatching.

Soy beans are not considered good food for laying hens when fed as whole grain or as cracked grain.

Much of the feed of the chickens, especially on the farms of the commercial raisers, comes from the feed mill.

Roundworms of the intestines, yellowish-white, a half inch to four inches long, are parasites causing birds to droop and fall.

Chickens or males are usually larger, have coarser thicker heads, longer necks and a shallower higher pitched voice.

COACH ORR UPSETS PLAN SCHOOL THIEVES

Coach Paul Orr gave two or three school thieves a real scare Wednesday evening and probably upset their plans to loot the building.

Coach Orr went to the building about eight o'clock to get some school books. After entering the building he heard two or three men run down the hall. He struck a match to find the electric switch and discovered the men had run down to the basement.

Orr hastily summoned Supt. H. D. Furst, and in a short time William Marshall, village marshal, and son, Dallas: Marshall, deputy county recorder, and A. E. Richards, clerk of board of education, made an effort to locate the men. It was found that entrance was gained through a window in the auditorium.

A check was made about the building but nothing could be found missing. It is likely that Coach Orr arrived just in time to check the plans of the thieves.

There is much desirable school equipment in the building that could be marketed and Supt. Furst is considering burglary insurance for protection.

Loans Will Be Made On Stored Seed Corn

Government Seeks To Insure Supply Needed Next Spring by Western States In Cornbelt

To assure a supply of adapted seed corn from other states for use next spring in Missouri, Kansas, Nebraska, and South Dakota, loans on seed corn are offered through the Commodity Credit Corporation to growers in those states which have warehouse laws enabling farmers to obtain warehouse receipts on farm-stored grain.

Ohio has such a warehouse law and it is possible that corn producers here may want to avail themselves of the new credit facility. The administration of the loans will be supervised by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration.

Two types of loans will be made on farm-stored seed corn; (1) a loan of $1.75 a bushel on field-selected corn which meets the proper germination and storage requirement, and (2) a loan of 55 cents a bushel on good quality and properly stored cribbed corn which can be sorted for seed at a later date. Each loan agreement carries with it an option right of purchase by the government at a rate considerably above the loan value.

The $1.75 loan will be made per bushel of 70 pounds of ear corn that has been selected from the field before frost, tested for germination, stored in suitable farm structures, and sealed in accordance with state warehouse laws. To insure that corn upon which such loans are made will be adapted for use in drought areas, agronomists from drought states will be asked to determine the counties where loans are to be made. The loan agreement carries an option permitting the government to purchase the corn at the rate of $2.50 per bushel of 56 pounds.

The 55-cent loan, designed to assure a secondary supply of seed corn, will be limited to corn harvested in 1936 which, if shelled, would grade No. 4 or better. The corn will be stored in permanent cribs and sealed in accordance with state warehouse laws. The purchase option permits the government to buy this corn at $1.50 a bushel of 70 pounds ear corn. Though the 55-cent corn loans is designed as an emergency measure, it will be conducted in much the same manner as the corn loan programs of the past three years.

Temperance Notes

Sponsored by Cedarville W. C. T. U.

A glass of booze may cause an awful crash. Beware.

Billy Sunday, not long before his death said: "Repeal of prohibition was the greatest calamity in the nation's history—far worse than the World War. But in ten years you will see prohibition back—to stay."

The church man who thought that repeal of prohibition would help business and quietly voted for it, is not talking very loud about the benefits secured by repeal. As he sees the awful tragedies today caused by legalized liquor he should go to his closet and cry, "God be merciful to me a sinner."

Some of the wets are funny. After imbibing poor bootleg for years without complaint, they are now kicking like bay steers about poor whisky just because it's legal—Wichita (Kan.) Eagle.

Of those arrested for drunkenness on Colorado's highways, approximately 80 per cent are on county relief, according to news dispatches.

Prohibition did not fail. It was never tried. At no time was the law in the hand of its friends for enforcement.

Eugene Chafin once said, "The law is 1 per cent and administration 99 per cent." What is needed today is an administration in power which believes in the principle of prohibition, a dry law enacted, with dry officials from President down to justice of the peace to enforce that law. When that takes place we shall have prohibition of the liquor traffic.

May the day soon come when the millions of voting church members see their responsibility in the matter.

We have before us a copy of the New Alexandria Press, published at New Alexandria, Pa., on one page of which is the illustrated Sabbath school lesson for June 21, with a picture of the Ascension of Jesus and the words "Jesus Exalted" and in large letters just beneath, across the bottom of the page are the words "Your Favorite Beer" served at . . . We understand that Rev. W. M. French, pastor of our church there called attention to this infamous combination and the congregation by vote expressed its horror of such a page. Would that more congregations would do likewise—protest against all kinds of liquor advertising.

"The cocktail hour and countless drink schemes advertised and urged by the trade are proving a greater menace to women and girls than the old-time saloon did to men and boys."

The liquor traffic is already producing a frightful harvest of tragedies since repeal and God only knows what the harvest in the next five or ten years will be if this Satanic business is not wiped out.

Need Studied Plans For Soils Program

Elmer F. Kruse Cites Drouth Damage And Losses of Fertility As Reasons

In view of the heavy losses of soil conserving crops as the result of the drouth this year, it should be the aim of Ohio farmers in their 1937 agricultural conservation program to regain lost ground and also to improve cropping systems they have been following in the past, according to Elmer F. Kruse, St. Marys, chairman of the state conservation committee.

The 1936 program was designed to encourage farmers to increase their soil-conserving crops but Ohio farmers find themselves faced with the necessity of repairing the damage done to meadows and new seedlings by the drouth. Meetings now are being held in nearly every community in Ohio to give farmers a chance to recommend provisions in the 1937 program to make possible the needed changes in cropping practices.

Another reason for holding community meetings this fall is to permit an earlier start for the 1937 program and thus to give farmers plenty of time to decide how best to change soil depleting practices to conform to the new plan.

Mr. Kruse says, "The economic pressure brought on farmers by low prices and reduced incomes forced them unwillingly to mine their soil in an effort to increase their income. This pressure has been relieved considerably but there still is a real need for encouraging the restoration of soil fertility through local, state, and national co-operation."

It is believed that the conclusions reached by Ohio farmers and by those in other states at the community meetings will lay the foundation for an effective conservation program in 1937. The state chairman feels it is a duty of every farmer to attend the meetings to present his opinions.

Woods Pay For Farm In Muskingum Area

Trees not only saved the top soil
but also paid for the farm of Harvey Floyd, Blue Rock, in Muskingum county. Mr. Floyd says that is not the whole story because he took timber to erect farm buildings from the hillsides before he sold the mature trees.

The history of the Floyd farm under its present owner goes back to the close of the World War. The farm is part steep hillsides and part bottom land. A house badly in need of repair was the only building standing on the place when it was bought at a foreclosure sale.

The new owner refused to cultivate the hillsides which were eroding badly with steep slopes.

but used them for pasture and woodlots. He concentrated his crop raising to the bottom lands and applied lime and fertilizer freely. Good stands of alfalfa and clover now have replaced weeds on this bottom land.
Mr. Floyd hired a portable sawmill and cut sufficient lumber from the farm to build a barn, a shed, a hog pen, and a chicken house. Some of the remaining mature timber was sold for $2,000, which was more than the original purchase price of the farm.

The bottom land on this place now produces good crops and the hillsides are covered with second growth trees and mature timber. Leroy Frontz, soil conservation service, Dayton, says this farm is an excellent example of the proper use of land in an area where strips of bottom land alternate
with steep slopes.

WHEN FOOD FERMENTS AND GASES RISE
TAKE JUST ENOUGH TO ALKALIZE

ACID INDIGESTION

Gas is fine in your stove or furnace, but it's both painful and embarrassing in your stomach.

Why don't you use Alka-Seltzer for the relief of ACID INDI-GESTION, Colds, Headache, Neuralgia, Muscular, Rheumatic, Sciatic Pains?

Alka-Seltzer is pleasant to take and unusually effective in action—not laxative, not habit forming, does not depress the heart.

CITIZENS NATIONAL BANK

Of Xenia, is the depository for many firms and families over this part of the State, who have relied upon its wise course to supply them with all banking needs and at the same time protect them in the safeguarding of their accounts.

Among the financial institutions of the community, there are indeed few which can show more substantial progress. The Citizens' National Bank is noted for its sound energetic, and conservative management, commanding in a marked degree the confidence of their depositors and of the public at large, a condition that is the aim of any executive board.

This bank is prepared to care for the accounts of individuals, firms, corporations, and estates, and they invite interviews or correspondence with those contemplating making changes or opening new accounts. Uniform consideration is given small and large deposits.

Its officers have worked side by side for the advancement of business in this part of the state, and they thoroughly understand its banking needs.

XENIA OFFICE SUPPLY

Under the efficient direction of Mr.
W. E. Boring, is located at 35 Green Street.

Much of the business of this part of the State is transacted over equipment furnished by this firm. They are an authority on modern methods in business and are the distributors for many leading manufacturers of office supplies, filing index systems, etc. They are dealers in social as well as commercial stationery.

Men who complain about the way
their wives care for their homes, should practice what they preach in their own office.
So often valuable papers are lost and important records misplaced, merely because a man maintains no system about his desk.

Time after time have efficient filing cabinets, modern record systems and up-to-the-minute office equipment proven themselves not only time, but money-savers as well.
With the advent of a prophesied
"big season," business men should prepare for it with an eye to efficiency.
